

WEDDING INFORMATION

Weddings are performed by appointment only. A wedding ceremony cannot be performed unless you have a marriage license. You may call for an appointment with the judicial officer prior to actually obtaining your license but you must have it in hand at the time of the ceremony. A marriage license obtained from any Clerk and Recorder's office in the State of Colorado is sufficient. For your convenience, listed below are the Clerk and Recorder's office in Elbert County.

Elbert County Clerk and Recorder

215 Comanche Street,
Kiowa, CO 80117
303-621-3128

There are several judicial officers in the 18th Judicial District who are available to perform wedding ceremonies Monday through Friday at their respective Courthouses. Additionally, most of these judges are available to perform after hours, weekend, and out of courthouse ceremonies. The judicial officer you contact will give you information concerning availability and fees.
