Administrative Order 10-11 (Amended December 14, 2012)
AMENDED ORDER REGARDING EMPLOYEE CONFLICT OF INTEREST WITH CASES PENDING BEFORE THE COURT, and EMPLOYEES UNDER DISCIPLINARY INVESTIGATION OR CHARGED WITH A CRIME

Pursuant to Colorado Judicial System Personnel Rule 22.C, Conflict of Interest with Cases Pending Before the Court – An employee shall avoid any involvement in the processing of any matter before the courts or probation in which the employee has a personal, business or family interest and immediately inform the Administrative Authority of the existence of such conflict of interest.

Further, pursuant to Colorado Judicial System Personnel Rule 29.E, Suspension of Employees under Disciplinary Investigation or Charged with a Crime – An employee who is arrested or charged with any felony, any misdemeanor, or any traffic or petty offense involving drugs or alcohol, shall notify his/her Administrative Authority within three (3) calendar days of being arrested or charged.

The procedures set out below are to be followed when an employee, intern or volunteer has such a conflict of interest:

1. Upon first learning of a case involving such a conflict being filed, or if an employee, intern or volunteer is uncertain if such a conflict exists, or upon being arrested or charged with any felony, misdemeanor, or any traffic or petty offense involving drugs or alcohol, the employee, intern or volunteer shall immediately inform the Administrative Authority which shall be the Clerk of Court and the District Administrator if you are a member of the court staff, or the Chief Probation Officer if you are a member of the probation department.
2. Upon request of the Administrative Authority you shall provide written notice to the Administrative Authority on a form approved by the Chief Judge.
3. The employee, intern or volunteer shall not process any documents regarding the case file, be present in an official capacity at any proceeding, nor access the electronic case management system (ICON/Eclipse/FileBound/LexisNexis/JPOD/ICCES) regarding the case.
4. If an employee, intern or volunteer wishes to review the case file involving any of the individuals set out above, they must submit a written request to the Clerk of the Court or

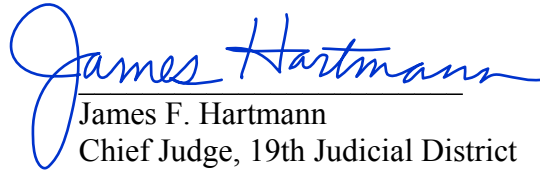

Chief Probation Officer. The Clerk of Court or Chief Probation Officer shall make arrangements for the file to be reviewed in the presence of the unit supervisor, Clerk of Court, or Chief Probation Officer.

5. The Clerk of Court or Chief Probation Officer shall, in collaboration with the District Administrator and/or Chief Judge, inform the judge assigned to the case when a case has been filed that involves any of the situations set out in this policy.

The failure to comply with the above policy may be deemed a violation of the Colorado Judicial Branch Code of Conduct and /or the Colorado Judicial System Personnel Rules and may be grounds for corrective or disciplinary action.
