Who We Are

About Us

The Court Information Center is here to assist Self-Represented Litigants. A Self-Represented Litigant is any individual who seeks information to file, pursue, or respond to a case without the assistance of a lawyer.

Hours

We are open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Location

915 10th Street, Greeley, Colorado 80631.
The Center is located on the first floor of the Centennial Center-Plaza South Building.

Weld County Combined Court Information Center

How can the Court Information Center help you?

Here are just a few ways the Court Information Center can provide assistance to Self-Represented

Litigants:

We Can...

- Locate and Access Forms
- Look Up Orders
- Determine Which Form You May Need
- Check Your Case Status
- Check Forms For Completeness
- Notarize Documents

We Cannot...

- Help with Criminal Cases

The 19th Judicial District's Self-Represented Litigant Coordinators are on staff at the Weld County Combined Court Information Center to provide parties, without attorneys, FREE procedural information and assistance with forms. The staff can answer questions about forms, the legal system, and the legal process, but cannot provide legal advice. Public access computers are available for research, and completing forms and parenting classes.

Interpreters

The Colorado Judicial Branch is committed to providing access to justice to all citizens regardless of the language they speak. The Court Information Center can provide interpretation services upon request. Individuals are asked to make an appointment.
