IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- VRA cases do not qualify for this pilot project and will not be addressed on the add-on dockets.
- The warrant must be related to a Boulder County case. Municipal warrants or warrants issued out of other jurisdictions will not be addressed.
- If defendants call in for information about their warrant, they will be told the correct date and time to appear at the Clerk's Office. If applicable, Consent of Surety will need to be provided at the time they appear for the add-on docket.
- Defendants should appear at the Clerk's Office on the appropriate day and time and request to be added on to the next add-on docket. Defendants must appear the same day as the add-on docket schedule specific to their case. If a defendant appears at a prior date, they will be instructed to come back the day of the scheduled add-on docket for the appropriate division.
- When a defendant appears on the appropriate date and time for their case, their case will be reviewed for add on, and they will be directed to the appropriate courtroom for their hearing.
- If their warrant is eligible for walk-in, the client will not be arrested at the counter; arrests will be handled in the division, when necessary.
- Affidavit Warrants and No-Bond Warrants regarding non-compliance with alternative jail sentences do not qualify for the program. If a defendant appears on an affidavit warrant or a non-compliance with jail sentence warrant, they will be arrested.
