WELCOME!

Welcome to the 20th Judicial District DUI Integrated Treatment Court (DITC). This handbook is designed to provide you with all of the information you need to be successful in the program. It should serve as a valuable resource during your involvement with the program.

The DITC is a voluntary program. As a participant in the DITC, you are expected to comply with the following:

- The instructions given to you by the Judge in court
- The terms and conditions of your probation
- The rules of the DITC, as outlined below
- The case plan developed by your treatment team

MISSION & OVERVIEW

The mission of the DUI Integrated Treatment Court is to integrate substance abuse treatment, intensive supervision, and substantial judicial oversight to promote public safety and individual responsibility, to reduce crime, and to improve the quality of life for participants and their families.

The purpose of the DITC is to help participants to develop the skills necessary to attain long-term sobriety. Participants must progress through five phases in order to successfully complete the program.

DITC TEAM

The DITC Judges make all final decisions about your participation and progress in the program. These decisions will be based on information provided by other team members in regularly held staffings that precede all court appearances. In addition to the Judge, the DITC team consists of:

District Attorney: The DITC prosecutor represents the people of the 20th Judicial District.

Public Defender or private defense counsel (your attorney): The defense attorney advises potential participants on legal matters. The public defender also has a social worker who will work closely with potential and active DITC participants.

DITC Coordinator: The coordinator acts as the main contact person for the program, and works closely with the Judge, probation officers, and treatment providers in overseeing the program's day-to-day operations. The coordinator also works with other community agencies (such as housing programs and medical providers) to ensure clients have the resources they need to be successful in the program.

Probation Officers: Both regular and ISP probation clients are assigned to probation officers who are part of the DITC team. Your probation officer is your primary contact person, and is also the primary source of information to the DITC team regarding your status in the program.

Treatment Providers: Most DITC participants will complete drug and alcohol treatment through Boulder County's Community Justice Services ROC program, with some working through other agencies or a private provider. Spanish speakers will be referred to Center for Change, where services in Spanish are available.

Those who seek treatment from a private provider must provide the DITC team with contact information and sign all required releases. The private treatment provider must also agree to provide the court with timely information regarding your progress.

Other service providers: Some DITC participants will receive supportive services from programs such as Boulder County Department of Social Services, the Mental Health Center of Boulder County, PACE, the Bridges Program, and alternative sentencing programs such as Day Reporting and Work Release. These programs will be in regular contact with the DITC regarding your progress.

DITC PROGRAM RULES

All DITC participants must abide by the terms and conditions of probation as well as all conditions outlined in the DITC contract that was reviewed and signed upon entry. These rules are summarized as follows:

1. Abstain from the use of illegal drugs and alcohol.
2. Submit to all drug screens as ordered by your probation officer, treatment provider, or the Court.
3. Inform your health care providers of your substance abuse history so that they can make informed decisions regarding the use of prescription medications.
4. Attend court dates, treatment sessions, and probation meetings as scheduled.
5. Refrain from association with those using or possessing illegal substances.
6. Inform your probation officer and treatment provider of any changes in your address or phone number immediately.
7. Comply with any other conditions as outlined in the terms and conditions of probation as well as those outlined in the DITC contact.

CONFIDENTIALTY

State and federal laws require that your privacy be protected. You will be asked to sign a consent and waiver so that the team members can share information in order to plan your treatment and monitor your progress in the program.

DITC COURT HEARINGS

Upon entering the DITC, participants will typically attend court every other week. Occasionally, participants experiencing difficulty may be required to attend weekly, at least temporarily. As you advance through the phases, you will likely have fewer court appearances. Participants are expected to attend all court appearances, and a warrant for your arrest will be issued if you fail to appear.

DRUG SCREENS

Since achieving and maintaining sobriety is one of the main goals of the DITC, participants will be tested frequently for drug and alcohol use. Drug testing is generally done using urine screens, saliva samples, and breathalyzers. Other mechanisms used to monitor sobriety may include SCRAM, Antabuse, hair follicle tests, or other procedures approved by the court. Urine screens will be observed to ensure results are valid. Participants are responsible for the costs of testing, unless other arrangements have been made with your probation officer or treatment provider.

Positive, missed, altered or refused screens will be considered positive and subject to sanction. If for some reason you miss a drug screen, you should inform your probation officer immediately and submit as soon as possible.

NOTE: Urine specimens with creatinine levels below 20 mg/dl or above 400mg/dl will be considered invalid and subject to sanction.

You are ultimately responsible for ensuring the screens you provide are valid. You should be aware that prescription drugs, over-the-counter medications, herbal remedies, and dietary or energy supplements can affect your test results. As such, it is strongly advised you learn how the ingredients of a given medicine or supplement might impact results before you start taking them.

PRESCRIPTION DRUG USE

All participants will be expected to inform their health care providers of their addiction issues so that informed decisions can be made when prescription medications are being considered. In the event that prescription medications are deemed necessary, participants should make every effort to obtain a non-narcotic alternative, if one is available. Should you be placed on a prescription medication, you must notify your probation officer within 24 hours. Failure to do so will result in a sanction.

NOTE: In an effort to ensure full disclosure, participants are required to provide their health care provider with the ITC Doctor's Notice when attending medical or dental appointments, provided by the probation officer. This form contains the probation officer's contact information and requires the doctor's signature.

Participants with a history of abusing prescription drugs, or who have been prescribed potentially habit-forming medications, may be subject to additional requirements. These may include:

- Being restricted to one prescribing physician.
- Agreeing to work with your physician to discontinue use of a potentially habit-forming medication.

NOTE: Individuals may not possess a medical marijuana certificate while in the program.

“DESIGNER” DRUG USE

The possession or consumption of any “designer” drugs such as “Spice,” “bath salts,” etc., whether purchased legally or illegally, is strictly prohibited and subject to sanction. Such substances are often sold or marketed under false pretenses and labeled “Not for Human Consumption,” though they are purchased for the purpose of getting a “high.”

INCENTIVES AND SANCTIONS

Frequent court reviews afford the DITC team the opportunity to respond quickly to participants' behaviors, whether positive or negative. Participants who demonstrate compliance and progress in treatment may be given rewards. Those participants who continue to use substances or violate program rules will be subject to sanctions.

Some incentives used by the Court include:

- Praise from the Judge
- Gift cards
- Movie tickets or activity passes
- Promotion to the next phase

Possible sanctions that can be imposed by the Court include:

- Essays or writing assignments
- Community Service
- Work Crew or Work Release
- Straight jail time

THE FIVE PHASES OF THE DITC

There are five phases to the DITC program. While the program can be completed in as few as 12 months, successful completion typically takes an average of 16 months. Each phase must be successfully completed before you can advance to the next phase.

The phase lengths below represent the minimum amount of time required before advancing to the next phase. Advancement is not “automatic,” and is contingent on several factors including stability, attendance and participation in treatment, drug screen results, progress in recovery, and other relevant factors. Decisions regarding advancement will be made by the DITC Judge in consultation with other team members.

Occasionally, clients have unique circumstances that call for special consideration regarding program expectations. Such situations will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Any modifications to phase or treatment requirements must be approved by the Judge and/or the DITC team.

Phase 1: Entry & Orientation (minimum of 3 weeks)

Orientation is the starting point of your involvement in the DITC. It is during this period that you will make initial contact with your probation officer, treatment provider, and monitoring agency.

During Entry & Orientation, you are expected to:

- Attend all scheduled court appearances
- Attend all scheduled probation meetings
- Submit drug screens (UA, BA, swabs, etc.) as directed
- Attend drug/alcohol evaluation and intake appointment(s)
- Attend 3 (three) groups per week
- Attend 1 (one) individual counseling session per month

COURT REVIEWS: You are expected to appear on time for your court status reviews and to be prepared to give the Judge an honest update on how things are going.

PROBATION: Your probation officer is your primary contact person in the DITC. In your initial meetings, your probation officer will review the terms and conditions of probation as well as the requirements of the DITC program. Your PO will also assign you to a drug testing agency and review reporting instructions. You will be meeting with your PO regularly to discuss your employment status, home situation, etc. Your PO will also be doing home checks periodically.

DRUG SCREENS: You are required to submit to any testing ordered by your probation officer or the Court. Monitoring is typically done through urine, breath or saliva tests; however, you may be required to submit to other testing methods such as hair tests, SCRAM monitoring, etc.

Even if you are concerned that your test may come back positive, it is very important that you submit anyway! Especially during Phase I, your probation will not be terminated for positive drug tests, provided you submit consistently. You should note, however, that continued or new use will result in sanctions.

TREATMENT: Your treatment intake will be scheduled immediately upon acceptance into the DITC Program. After it is completed, you will be instructed as to what treatment and support groups you will be expected to attend. In addition, you will be required to attend an individual counseling session at least once a month throughout the first three phases.

SUPPORT GROUPS: Support groups include AA/NA, TOPA, church groups, Phoenix Multisport, meetings with your sponsor, and other activities that are related to supporting your recovery. In Phase I, you will be encouraged to attend a support group or activity on each day you do not have an individual or group treatment session scheduled. You will be expected to document all community support groups on the Support Group/12 Step Attendance Verification form. This form requires you obtain a signature for each activity or meeting attended. You will be expected to bring this form with you every time you come to court.

HOUSING: This phase is designed to run concurrent with your 84-day work release sentence.

EMPLOYMENT/EDUCATION/TRAINING: The structure provided by a set schedule can be very beneficial, particularly for those in the early stages of recovery. In addition to other program requirements, you will be expected to find and maintain suitable employment, or to be attending school or a vocational/training program. (Exceptions to this requirement include stay-at-home parents, those unable to work due to disability, etc.)

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS: You will be responsible for meeting any financial obligations to the court as well as to treatment providers. Treatment will be provided at a cost of $830 for the program. Failure to make satisfactory arrangements to meet these obligations can result in the denial of treatment. You should inform your probation officer and/or treatment provider if you are experiencing financial problems.

Phase 2: Stability (minimum of 9 weeks)

During Stability Phase you must:

- Attend all scheduled court appearances
- Attend all scheduled probation meetings
- Submit drug screens (UA, BA, swabs, etc.) as directed
- Attend all weekly treatment appointments as identified in your treatment plan.

COURT REVIEWS: You are expected to appear on time for your court status reviews and to be prepared to give the Judge an honest update on how things are going.

PROBATION: You will continue to meet with your probation officer on a regular basis. You and your PO will develop a case plan specific to your situation, including monitoring, treatment, employment, etc.

DRUG SCREENS: You are required to submit to all drug screens as instructed by your probation officer.

TREATMENT: You will continue to work with your treatment provider in developing treatment plans and addressing issues in individual and group therapy sessions. You will attend groups covering topics indicated by your treatment plan. The degree of your investment in treatment will be considered a critical measure of your progress in the program.

SUPPORT GROUPS: In Phase 2, you will be encouraged to attend at least four (4) support groups per week, and document your attendance on the Support Group/12 Step Attendance Verification form. You will be expected to bring this form with you every time you come to court.

HOUSING: You will be expected to maintain safe and sober housing. If you are experiencing difficulty in this area, the DITC team will make every effort to assist you in finding a more suitable living situation.

Treatment will be provided at a cost of $830 for the program. Failure to make satisfactory arrangements to meet these obligations can result in the denial of treatment.
