

TWENTY-SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT
DOLORES AND MONTEZUMA COUNTIES

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2010-005 (amended February 27, 2012)
(replacing Administrative Order 2004-2)

STANDING ORDER REGARDING PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES
WHILE A CHILD IS IN DETENTION

The COURT enters the following Order concerning Parental Responsibilities in accordance with C.R.S. § 19-2-113 and the Detention Bed Management Plan adopted by the Chief Judge of the 22nd Judicial District.

Budgetary constraints limit the number of detention beds available to the 22nd Judicial District. These limitations require an emergency release policy for children in detention who are not convicted or serving a sentence.

The parents of the child involved in this case understand that they are parties to the case because their child has been criminally charged and placed in detention.

Since a child may be released from pre-conviction detention at any time due to emergency release requirements, it is necessary that the parents remain available to retrieve their child.

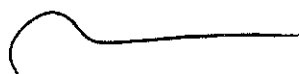

Therefore, the parents or guardians are ordered to comply with the following:

1. You must provide both the detention center and the Probation Department of the 22nd Judicial District (970-565-7216) with telephone numbers where you can be contacted 24 hours a day, seven days a week. This includes home, work, cell, and pager numbers.
2. You must provide both the detention center and Probation with your current address.
3. You must immediately notify the detention center and Probation of any change to your telephone number(s) or address.

4. If you leave town for any reason, even for an emergency, you must provide the detention center and Probation with the contact information of a responsible adult, at least 18 years of age, that you authorize to pick up your child. You must provide the detention center and Probation with telephone numbers (home, work, cell, pager) and addresses where that person can be contacted 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
5. You shall be available to pick up your child from detention within three (3) hours of notification.

This Order shall be effective March 1, 2012, and remain in effect unless or until modified by subsequent Court Order.

So Ordered on February 27th, 2012.

 Douglas S. Walker
 Chief Judge, Twenty-Second Judicial District

Acknowledgement of Order

I / (we) have received this Order, and we each understand that if any part of this Order is violated, I / (we) may be prosecuted for, and found in, Contempt of Court. If that were to happen, the penalties can include a fine and/or jail not to exceed 180 days.
