ORDER 07-05 (Rev. 2/12)

Effective January 1, 2001, all civil cases filed in the Fifth Judicial District were subject to a Delay Reduction Order pursuant to Chief Judge Order 00-07, in order to ensure positive case tracking and the timely disposition of the case consistent with the needs of justice. This Order affirms Chief Judge Order 00-07, with modifications, and extends the requirement for Delay Reduction Orders to Domestic Relations cases. A Delay Reduction Order will be sent out automatically immediately upon docketing every new civil complaint or petition, or Domestic Relations petition filed. Every case shall also have future scheduled events set in order to confirm that the filings required by the Order have been accomplished. The attached sample Orders have been reviewed and approved for use by the district court judges of the Fifth Judicial District.

Done at Eagle, Colorado this 16 day of February 2012.

R. THOMAS MOORHEAD
Chief Judge
