

Colorado Supreme Court 2 East 14th Avenue Denver, CO 80203	DATE FILED: December 7, 2017
Original Proceeding District Court, City and County of Broomfield, 2017CV30094
In Re:	Supreme Court Case No: 2017SA134
Petitioner: Joseph Tumpkin, v.
Respondents: The Broomfield County Court and The Honorable Amy Bockman.
ORDER OF COURT

Upon consideration of the Petition to Show Cause filed in the above-captioned matter, and having heard argument by counsel and deemed the case submitted to the consideration and judgment of the court, and now being sufficiently advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED, the Rule is Made Absolute in part and Discharged in part, and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any preliminary hearing in the county court in case number 17CR31 be stayed during the pendency of the action pursuant to C.R.C.P. 106(a)(4) in the district court in case number 17CV30094. The Respondent's Motion for Stay in the district court is therefore rendered moot, and the hearing set by the district court concerning that motion is vacated. The matter is remanded to the district court for resolution of the 106(a)(4) action without an evidentiary hearing.

BY THE COURT, EN BANC, DECEMBER 7, 2017.
