Gov. Hickenlooper appoints Phillips County Court judge

DENVER — Tuesday, May 13, 2014 — Gov. John Hickenlooper today appointed Kimbra Killin to the Phillips County Court bench to fill a vacancy due to the resignation of the Honorable David O. Colver, which is effective May 30, 2014

Killin is currently a partner at Colver, Killin & Sprague, LLP, in Holyoke. Her primary areas of practice include real estate transactions, estate planning and probate, entity formation, title work and agricultural issues. She previously served as Special County Attorney for the Phillips and Sedgwick County Departments of Human Services.

Killin earned an undergraduate degree from Regis University in 1990 and a Juris Doctor from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in 1994.
