Gov. Hickenlooper appoints district court judge in the 17th Judicial District

DENVER – Wednesday, May 3, 2017 – Gov. John Hickenlooper has appointed Priscilla Jeffrey Loew as a district court judge in the 17th Judicial District. She fills a vacancy created by the retirement of the Honorable John Popovich.

Loew currently serves as a District Court Magistrate in the 17th Judicial District, a position she has held since 2016. Before that, she served as a Senior Deputy District Attorney in the 2nd Judicial District (2008-2016); a law clerk for the Honorable Larry J. Naves of the Denver District Court (2007-2008); and a Deputy District Attorney in the Weld County District Attorney's Office (2006-2007). Loew earned her undergraduate degree from Colorado State University in 2003 and her J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in 2006.

Loew's appointment is effective May 31, 2017.
