Baum appointed to District Court in 18th Judicial District

DENVER – Thursday, July 13, 2017 – Gov. John Hickenlooper today announced Andrew Carl Baum’s appointment to the District Court in the 18th Judicial District.

Baum will fill a vacancy created by the retirement of the Honorable F. Stephen Collins.

Baum currently serves as a Magistrate in the 18th Judicial District, a position he has held since 2016. Baum presides over a domestic relations docket. Before becoming a judicial officer, he served in the Denver District Attorney’s Office, most recently in the Economic Crime Unit. His previous rotations in the DA’s office include the Family Violence Unit (2011-2014), the District Court Division (2009-2011), the Juvenile and Drug Court Units (2008) and the County Court Division (2007-2008). Prior to joining the Denver District Attorney’s Office, Baum served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General’s Corps (2003-2007). He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1999, and his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School in 2002.

Baum’s appointment is effective Aug. 1, 2017.
