Gov. Hickenlooper appoints new district court judge in 17th Judicial District

DENVER – Thursday, Feb. 15, 2018 – Gov. John Hickenlooper today appointed Sean Finn as a District Court Judge in the 17th Judicial District. He fills a vacancy created by the appointment of the Honorable Ted Tow to the Colorado Court of Appeals.

Finn currently serves as a Chief Trial Deputy for the District Attorney’s Office in the 20th Judicial District, a position he has held since 2010. In this capacity, Finn prosecutes felony offenses; supervises felony-level prosecutions of economic crimes, cases brought before the Boulder County Grand Jury, and appeals brought on behalf of the District Attorney’s Office; and handles civil matters on behalf of the District Attorney’s Office, including forfeiture of asset cases. Finn also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Criminal Procedure at the University of Colorado School of Law. Prior to his current employment, he served as a Deputy District Attorney and Senior Deputy District Attorney in the 17th Judicial District (2005-2010); as a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Russel of the Colorado Court of Appeals (2004-2005); as an Associate at Davis Graham & Stubbs, LLP (2003-2004); and as an Associate at O’Melveny & Myers, LLP in Los Angeles (2001-2003). Finn earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Colorado in 1997 and his J.D. from Loyola Law School in 2001.

Finn’s appointment was effective Feb. 13, 2018.
