Governor Polis Appoints Stephanie L. Scoville to the 2nd Judicial District Court

DENVER - Today, Governor Polis appointed Stephanie L. Scoville to a vacancy on the 2nd Judicial District Court. This vacancy is created by the retirement of the Honorable Lisa Teesch-Maguire, and is effective October 15, 2021.

Ms. Scoville is the First Assistant Attorney General of the Cross-Unit Litigation Team at the Office of the Colorado Attorney General, a position she has held since 2019. Previously, Ms. Scoville was in the Civil Litigation Unit (2018-2019), Higher Education Unit (2016-2018), and the Employment Tort Unit (2004-2016); Associate at Wheeler Trigg O'Donnell LLP (2000-2004); and law clerk to the Honorable Rebecca Love Kourlis of the Colorado Supreme Court (1999-2000). Ms. Scoville earned her B.A. from Drake University in 1993 and her J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1999.
